The Directors now submit their Report to the Proprietors on the Affairs of the Bank for the Half-year just terminated (1st July to 31st December.)

The Statement exhibited above shows the amount of the ASSETS and LIABILITIES, and the position of the Bank on the 31st Ultimo.

The PROFIT and Loss Account comprises the following details:—

RECEIPTS.

For Discounts, Interest and Commission Rs. 9,93,693

The increase in the amount of the Bank Establishment, compared with that exhibited in the Statement of the previous Half-year, Rs. 1252, arises from the employment of additional Native Assistants, the Annual increase of Rupees 25 per month to the Salary of the Junior Passing Officer, and the monthly outlay of Rs. 412-8-0 to some of the European Officers as Acting Allowances consequent on the absence of Mr. Lee, the Deputy Secretary, who has obtained leave for 12 months under Medical Certificate.

The sum exhibited under the head of DOUBTFUL DEBTS (Rs. 91,623-0-11,) the Directors have written off to the Profit and Loss account; all recoveries on account of which will be brought to credit as realized. These Losses have been occasioned by the sudden and great depreciation in Public Securities that took place previous to the Doorgah Poojah Holidays, caused by the political circumstances of the Country. The Directors have had the satisfaction, however, of declaring a Dividend at the high rate of 14 per Cent per annum, after providing for all losses, and increasing the Fund reserved to cover depreciation on the Government Securities belonging to the Bank, by the sum of Rs. 63,770.

The sums expended upon BUILDINGS and REPAIRS during the Half-year, amount to Rs. 2,343—this includes the charges for Gas Fittings, Lamps, &c.

The amount of Public Securities in hand on the 31st Ultimo in THE DEPOSITOR'S DEPARTMENT was Rs. 5,10,16,178, the sum of the Commission received during the Half-year Rs. 14,799, and the charges for Establishment, &c., of the Department Rs. 8,325.

Published by order of the Directors,

Notification.—Read again the following papers:—

Extract Public Works Department, No. 1443, dated 27th March 1857, with its enclosure.

Read an Office Memo. No. 6196, dated the 30th ultimo, from the Public Works Department, with its enclosure, relative to the salary to be passed to an Uncovenanted Servant, from the date of his return from Furlough up to the date of joining his appointment.

RESOLUTION.—On the 21st August 1856, Mr. T. Login, Executive Officer, Bassein River, obtained, under Section VII.,* Clause 3, of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, leave of absence to Europe for a period of six months. He was subsequently allowed by the Hon'ble Court, as a special case, nine months' leave of absence without pay, in addition to the six months already taken, thereby extending to fifteen months the whole period of his authorized absence from India; and which period, the Hon'ble Court directed, was to be regarded as if authorized under Section VIII.† of the above Rules.

Mr. Login having returned from England on the 31st October last, the Officiating Chief Engineer, Lower Provinces, solicits orders regarding the salary to be passed to him from that date up to the 28th November last, the date of his arrival at Purneah, the Head Quarters of the Division (Darjeeling Road), to which he is now attached.

The Officiating Secretary in the Public Works Department suggests the expediency of laying down general Rules (if such Rules do not already exist) to meet the cases of Uncovenanted Officers who, like Mr Login, may not join appointments immediately on return from Furlough.

Referring to this suggestion, His Lordship in Council remarks that leave may be granted to Uncovenanted Servants preparatory to Furlough on private affairs, or for return to Station after the expiration of Furlough, only on the terms of Section VIII.† of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, for the period specified in the Financial Notification of 14th October 1857, viz four, six, or eight weeks, according as the distance to be travelled shall not exceed 300 or 600 miles, without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay, the period of absence not counting as service towards pension.

If the Furlough however, be enjoyed in India, no preparatory leave is to be granted; the Furlough being reckoned from the date of the absentee's quitting his post to the date of his return thereto.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Public Works Department, with a request that Mr Login's case be treated under the Rule above laid down.

Ordered also, that a copy of the Resolution be sent to the Departments,* the Governments† and the Officers‡ noted in the margin, for information, and guidance.

Ordered further, that a copy be published in the Official Gazette for general information.

BRIGDIER-GENL G. H. MACGREGOR, C. B.,

Military Commissioner,

TO

THE SECY. TO THE GOVT. OF INDIA,

Foreign Department,

Calcutta.

Camp, Goruckpore, 7th January 1858.

SIR,

I YESTERDAY had the pleasure of sending to the Lieutenant-Governor of the Central Provinces and to the Commissioner of Patna, for transmission to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council, the following telegram:—"The Army, under the Command of Maharajah Jung Bahadoor occupied the Station and City of Goruckpore this day at 2 P. M. Our passage was at first disputed at a Nullah in the middle of the Jungle in front of Goruckpore, and secondly at the entrance to the Station. The rebels, however, made no real stand. After firing a few rounds, on the advance of our Troops, they fled, and were pursued to the Rupty, in their endeavours to cross which some hundreds were killed, with trifling loss on our side. We have captured 6 Guns and 2 Zamboorucks. More by Post to-morrow."

2nd. I have now the honor to submit, for the information of His Lordship in Council, a detailed account of our operations of yesterday, which I was unable to do in time for the Post last night.

3rd. We left Camp at 7 in the morning, a thick fog spreading over the plain, but which had entirely dispersed by the time we arrived at the Jungle about two miles and a half in front.

4th. There a Brigade under Brigadier Run Sing, accompanied by Captain Plowden, was sent by a road to turn our right to turn their left flank, and a Brigade under Brigadier Sunmuck Singh, accompanied by Captain Edmonstone, to turn their right flank by a road to our left; a third Brigade, under Brigadier Junga Doge, accompanied by Lieutenant Foote and supported by the Guns under Colonel Loll Sing, accompanied by Major FitzGerald, marching by the main road.

5th. Shortly after entering the Jungle, which was very thick, the Centre Column was stopped at a Nullah where the road led over a Bridge, about 15 feet of the superstructure of which had been torn away by the Enemy, leaving, however, the main beams intact. Here the Enemy had taken post to prevent our further progress; but our Guns immediately opened on them, replied to by two of theirs, as also by a volley of musketry succeeded by a dropping fire. Our fire was, however, too much for them, and on the advance of the Infantry, who passed through the Nullah, the Enemy fled with precipitation, abandoning a Gun, which was captured by the Centre Brigade.

6th. From this the Enemy fled through the Jungle, pursued by our men as hard as they could go; but being only Infantry, and the road being sandy and heavy, the men were unable to come up with the flying Enemy. After passing the Bridge the Centre Column was joined by the two Flanking ones in succession, the Enemy not having waited for them to arrive on the scene, and the whole pressed forward to the front at a place which was mostly a run the whole way. The Bridge was immediately repaired, and the Baggage begun to cross.

7th. On the head of the Column emerging from the Jungle, a party of the Enemy were observed on the left, between whom and our Skirmishers long shots were being exchanged, and a few rounds from the Guns of the leading Brigade quickly dispersed them. The leading Brigade then pushed forward, and as the ground rose a little, at its crest, we were in view of the Station of Goruckpore. Here the Enemy opened on us from a small tope in front at about 700 yards. His round shot fell very accurately on the road, but not exactly in the direction that we were approaching in.

8th. Two Guns were immediately brought to the front and two more shortly after. Their fire was very effective, killing two men at the Enemy's Gun, which they abandoned, accompanied by a small party of Horse, which was seen no more. On capturing this Gun, the Force was about to halt agreeably to orders from the Maharajah, when fresh orders were received to push on and try and intercept the rebels at the Ghaut.

9th. The Troops again pressed forward with unwearied energy, passed a very strong entrenchment, which would have cost us much trouble and many men if the Enemy had had the resolution to defend it, and reached the Ghaut on the River just as a number of the Enemy were endeavouring to push off for the other side.

10th. At one place a number tried to rush up the Banks and effect an escape into the Fields, but were intercepted by the Goorkhas and cut to pieces. The great majority, however, jumped into the River, where they were shot down in great numbers. Three or four hundred must have been killed there, the River being at one time literally covered with floating bodies.

11th. It is now my pleasing duty to bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council the names of the Nepalese Officers who were most distinguished in the action of the day. Colonel Loll Sing, Commanding the Maharajah's Artillery, proved himself a good Artillery Officer. He brought his Guns well forward into action, and served them with a rapidity and precision which soon drove the Enemy from his position. Captain Suzan Sing Commanded the Guns on the rising ground at the entrance of the Station, and his very effective fire was much admired by the Officers present.

12th. Major FitzGerald, who accompanied Colonel Loll Sing, has gained the confidence of that Officer. He gave him sound and judicious advice, which was well acted on.

13th. Brigadier Junga Doge, who Commanded the leading Brigade, reaped, conjointly with the Artillery, the principal honors of the day. He led his men on steadily in advance, captured the first Gun at the Bridge, and was the first to overtake the rebels at the Ghaut. Lieutenant Foote, who accompanied him, greatly distinguished himself, exerting himself constantly to get the men into order and keep them steady in their ranks.

14th. Brigadier Sunmuck Singh's Brigade was also well in advance, accompanied by Captain Edmonstone, who got the Guns into position on emerging from the Jungle, and quickly drove the Enemy away. His Brigade was also early at the Ghaut.

15th. Brigadier Run Sing's Brigade was most skilfully led through the Forest to the right by a Native Guide and Mr. Bird, of the Civil Service, and accompanied by Captain Plowden. Arriving too late to surprise the Enemy at the Bridge in the Jungle, they having previously fled on the advance of the Centre Brigade, Run Sing's Brigade was, from its position, unable to take much further part in the events of the day.

16th. The same may be said of Brigadier Jodh Adhikarce's Brigade, which formed the Rear Guard with the Baggage, and was accompanied by Lieutenant Hill.

17th. I have great pleasure in specially mentioning the services of Mr. Bird, of the Civil Service, who has, from the time he joined this Force, exerted himself in a way which deserves my warmest praise. He was the guide and at the head of the Column on this day, where his local knowledge proved of the greatest value.

18th. I have also to bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council the assistance which I have received from my Military Secretary and A. D. C., Lieutenant MacAndrew; from the time that we entered on our duties at Bettiah he has been most useful and zealous. He was with the leading Brigade from the opening at the Goruckpore end of the Forest to the end of the action, and the first man who reached the Ghaut on the River.

19th. Captains Brander and Thompson, of the Commissariat Department, having but little of their own proper duties to do in consequence of the self-supplying nature of this Camp, exerted themselves as Military Officers, and rendered very good service, the latter especially, in having, together with Lieutenant MacAndrew, subdued a dangerous fire which broke out close to a Rebel Magazine and threatened the Judge's house with destruction.

20th. Lieutenant Cory, Quarter Master in Camp, also accompanied the Advance Brigade. The Commissioner, Mr. Wingfield, C. S., the Collector, Mr. Brereton, C. S., and Captain Byers, Assistant Resident at Nipal, accompanied myself and the Maharajah throughout the day.

21st. Surgeon Dicken and the other Medical Officers were present at their posts; but had fortunately but little to do, our Casualties being only two killed and five wounded.

22nd. A Return of the Captured Ordnance will be sent as soon as it can be prepared.

By Her Majesty's Command,

PANMURE

Pensions and Allowances to Officers of the Land Forces, limited to Wounds and Injuries received in Action.

1. If an Officer shall receive a Wound in Action, which shall occasion the loss of an eye, or a limb; or shall lose thereby the total use of a limb; or shall receive bodily injury equal in its consequences to the loss of a limb, he may be eligible to receive a Gratuity in money of one year's full-pay of the Regimental rank or Staff appointment held by him at the time he was wounded for the loss of such eye, or limb.

2. If an Officer shall be wounded in Action, and it shall be reported by a Board of Army Medical Officers, assembled by order of the Secretary of State for War for the personal examination of such Officer, that he has, in consequence of his wound, lost a limb, or an eye; or has totally lost the use of a limb; or that he has sustained a severe injury in Action, equal to the loss of a limb, he may be recommended to Her Majesty for a Pension, at the rate fixed in the annexed Scale for the rank held by him when he was wounded, and commencing one year after the Wound was received, the continuance of which shall depend upon the subsequent examinations and reports of a Military Medical Board, which the Secretary of State for War may appoint at any time for this purpose.

3. If the Officer shall have lost more than one limb, or eye, he may be recommended for a Pension for each limb, or for each eye, so lost in Action.

4. If the Wound received by an Officer in Action shall be so severe in its permanent effects as to be nearly equal, but not equal, to the loss of a limb, and the injury shall be reported by the Military Medical Board as materially interfering with the capability of following his profession, or gaining his livelihood; he may be recommended to Her Majesty for a temporary Pension for two years, the continuance of which shall depend upon subsequent examinations before a Military Medical Board; or, he may be recommended for a Gratuity of eighteen months' full pay of his Regimental Rank or Staff appointment held by him when wounded; in which case no Pension shall be granted to him under this Regulation; unless he refund six of the eighteen months' Gratuity which may have been awarded to him.

5. If any Wound received in Action shall be certified to be severe and dangerous, but in its permanent effects not equal to the loss of a limb, the Officer receiving such Wound may, in consideration of the expense attending the cure thereof, receive a Gratuity, varying, according to the nature of the case, from three to twelve months' full-pay of the Regimental Rank or Staff appointment held by him at the time he was wounded.

6. If an Officer shall have held a Pension for a term of five years, and shall have been examined, twice at the least, before a Board of Army Medical Officers, he may be recommended for the permanent continuance of such Pension; but if the Officer, before the expiration of the term of five years, shall have so far recovered, that his Wound or Injury is not equal to the loss of a limb, then he shall cease to receive such Pension, and shall have a Gratuity of full-pay according to the degree of his injury, as laid down in Article 5.

7. If within the period of five years after a Wound has been received, an Officer shall not apply for the Pension, or, on his so applying for it, the Wound shall not have been proved to be permanently equal to the loss of a limb, such Officer's claim to a Pension shall not at any subsequent period be entertained.

8. No Gratuity or Allowance for any Wound shall be granted after the lapse of five years from the time the wound was received.

9. No Pension for the loss of one eye, from a Wound received in Action, shall be granted, unless the actual loss of vision shall have occurred within five years after the Wound was received, and be solely attributable to such Wound.

10. As a general rule, the Pension shall be granted according to Regimental rank; but in cases in which Officers with Brevet Rank shall have been employed at the time they were wounded, in discharge of duties superior to those attached to their Regimental Commissions, the Gratuities and Pensions shall be given according to the Rank they held by Brevet.

11. These Pensions may be held together with any other Pay and Allowances to which an Officer may be entitled, without any deduction on account thereof.

SIR,

As an Addenda to my Despatch of the 22nd September last, I have the honor to request you will submit to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for the purpose of being forwarded to Government, the name of Brevet Colonel J. Welshman, of the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, among the names of these Officers who have done good service with the Force before Delhi, but were wounded previous to the assault. Colonel Welshman commanded his Regiment from the commencement of operations, and led his men with cool and steady gallantry on several occasions, particularly in the action of Budlee Serai on the 8th; again, on the 29th and on the 23rd June, when he was severely wounded, when leading on his Regiment in the attack on the Zubzee Mundee.

* No. 812 dated 21st December 1857; No. 8 dated 5th January 1858; No. — dated 5th January 1858.

His name was unintentionally, and through an oversight, omitted in my former Despatch.

2 I beg also to forward a copy of a Report from Captain Muter, H. M.'s 60th Royal Rifles, who succeeded to the Command of the 4th Column of Attack, bringing to notice the services of a Detachment of Mooltance Horse under the Command of Lieutenant Lind on the morning of the 14th September.

3. Major F. Gaitskell, Commanding the Artillery Brigade with the Field Force, has also requested that the name of Lieutenant G. A. Renny, Commanding the 5th Troop 1st Brigade H. A., may be inserted immediately after that of Captain Blunt in the 8th paragraph of his Despatch No. 20 of the 19th September, the services of this Officer entitling him to this recognition, which was accidentally omitted.

TO

THE ASST. ADJUTANT GENERAL,

Delhi Field Force, Delhi.

Palace, Delhi, 11th December 1857.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to enclose a Report from Lieutenant Lind, detailing the operations of a Force of 300 Sabres of the Mooltance Horse under his Command, in conjunction with Major Reid's Column of Attack on Kishengunge, on the 14th September last.

I trust it is not too late to bring to the notice of Major General Wilson, then Commanding the Field Force, and His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the services of this Officer and his party.

The position in which the Column of Attack was placed was very critical, and had I been aware that this Cavalry was on our right flank, I would have felt much greater confidence. Lieutenant Lind's movements appear to me to have been very judicious, and I would not have failed to have brought this to the notice of the General in Command, had I been earlier acquainted with the circumstances.

I have, &c.,

SIR,

HAVING omitted at the time to send in a Report after the fight at Kishengunge on the 14th September last, I would request the favor of your forwarding this letter to the Adjutant General of the Army, in order that, if possible, the Mooltanee Cavalry may appear in the Gazette as engaged. At 3 A. M. of the 14th September, Brigadier General Nicholson directed me to proceed to Hindoo Rao's with 300 Sabres of the Mooltanee Cavalry, and to place myself under Major Reid's orders. Major Reid ordered me to go to the Zulzee Mundee and await further orders there. In the Zulzee Mundee I found 2 Horse Artillery Guns and a Regiment of Cashmeerees. These latter were soon engaged, and left my front open, when I proceeded along the road towards the Kishengunge. I found no ground for Cavalry to act on, and lost a few men and horses killed and wounded. An alarm was now raised, that the Enemy had got into our rear, so I returned up the Zulzee Mundee and drove out some Sepoys who had got into the street and were preparing to take possession of the houses. I was then returning to my former position, when the Guide Cavalry (who had mistaken my men from their white dresses to be the Enemy) were sent to charge me. By the advice of the Officer Commanding the Guides, and seeing that the 2 Horse Artillery Guns before mentioned had limbered up and were returning up the Zulzee Mundee, I withdrew my Cavalry into the plain, between the Mound and the Zulzee Mundee Picquet, where I got ground to act on and could prevent the Enemy's Cavalry from coming down on our rear, should they have attempted it. Whilst here, Colonel Dennis, H. M.'s 52nd Light Infantry, sent me an order to retire on the "Fukeer's Tukea," and to remain as a support to 4 Horse Artillery Guns at that post, which I obeyed, and was employed on that duty till the Guns were withdrawn on the 20th September.

2. I annex a Return of my loss in killed and wounded.

SIR,

MEERUT, 5th January 1858.
I HAVE the honor to forward for submission to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief copy of a letter No. 27, dated 3rd October last, from Major F. Gaitskell, Commanding the Artillery Brigade with the Delhi Field Force, transmitting a Despatch of the 1st idem from Major J. Brind, bringing to notice the services performed by the Foot Artillery under his Command, during the operations against the City of Delhi.

2. These letters reached me too late, I regret to say, to accompany my Despatches detailing the assault and capture of that place, and have subsequently been delayed owing to my having been absent on Medical Certificate. They bear, however, such honorable testimony to the admirable services of Major J. Brind and those under his Command, that I trust His Excellency will be pleased to forward them to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council, with the expression of my hope that they may be published in continuation of my previous Despatches.

I have, &c.,

To

No. 27.

THE ASST. ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Delhi.

SIR,

Delhi, 3rd October 1857.

I HAVE great pleasure in forwarding for submission to the Major General Commanding the Regiment the accompanying excellent Report received by me from Major J. Brind, Commanding the Foot Artillery of this Force, bringing to notice the services of that branch from the time he took Command (26th June 1857) until the more active operations of the Siege commenced, embracing a period of 2½ months, during which the Foot Artillery were in constant employment and undergoing the severest daily exposure.

2. The services of the Officers and men under his Command are so well and strongly brought to notice by Major Brind, that I can only record my entire concurrence in his Report. No Officers or Soldiers could have conducted themselves in a more zealous or gallant manner than did those of the Foot Artillery, or in a manner more likely to add fresh lustre to the Regiment.

3. But in thus doing only justice to such gallant Soldiers, I should consider I was neglecting a most important and a most agreeable duty, were I to abstain from bringing prominently to the notice of the Major General Commanding the Regiment the valuable and distinguished services of Major Brind himself whilst in Command of the Foot Artillery. From first to last, his energy and activity have been unceasing, ever foremost where danger was greatest, encouraging both Officers and men by his noble example, and whilst leading on those under him to every success in the Field, he, at the same time, never ceased to care for their wants and necessities in Camp.

The manner in which Major Brind exercised, without one hour's intermission, his Command of No. 1 Siege Battery, during the last eight days of the Siege, have already been brought to the notice of the Major General Commanding the Force, and I trust this last distinguished period of his Command (previous to the assault) will only tend the more surely to gain for Major Brind those honors which he so richly merits.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) F. GAITSKELL, Major,
Commanding Artillery Brigade.

To

LIEUT. FRITH, H. A.,
Major of Brigade, Arty. Brigade.

SIR,

Delhi, 1st October 1857.

ON the close of active operations connected with the Siege of Delhi, I feel it a duty I owe to Officers and men belonging to or doing duty with the Foot Artillery which I have Commanded since the 26th June, to bring their conduct to the notice of Major General A. Wilson, Commandant of Artillery and holding the chief Command of this victorious Army.

It would be superfluous in me to attempt any detailed Report of the unceasing labors, exposure to sun and wet, and dangers from the constant presence of an active and treacherous Enemy, to which the Foot Artillery was unavoidably exposed during the three months I have had the privilege of commanding it. As the Commanding Officer is fully aware of the peculiar circumstances under which this branch of the Army, especially, has been placed, gathered from various Stations and sent down in small detachments (with little more than the clothes on their backs) by Bullock Train, the Foot Artillery were called upon by the exigencies of the service to endure hardships beyond others. No Soldiers could have gone through the trials and dangers their country's cause imposed upon them in a more cheerful spirit, or with braver hearts, than did the Bengal Artillery attached to the Army of Delhi during this eventful period; and without disparagement to the mounted portion of the Regiment, of whose noble conduct, as passing under my observation during eight days and nights of constant danger and laborious exertion in No. 1 Breeching Battery, it has been my proud honor to report, I consider it an imperative duty to thus publicly express my admiration of Officers and men who have made my post one of honor and comparative ease.

If I have performed my duty to the satisfaction of Major General Wilson, it is mainly owing to the favorable position in which I have been placed and the health and strength with which I have been blessed.

Major Scott and Captain Bouchier's Batteries, though forming a portion of my Command, have not come so directly under my observation, owing to the detached nature of their duties; but I have much gratification in attesting to the satisfactory state of discipline and efficiency of the two Batteries, which justified me in feeling and placing the fullest confidence in these two Officers, and merely requesting that they would promptly carry out any orders received from the authorities, referring to me only when my support or assistance was required. Major Scott and his Command, by gallant services in the Field of Battle, had established a reputation previous to my arrival at Delhi, which, though fully appreciating and rejoicing in it, is not my province to allude to in this Report. Since leaving Delhi with the moveable column, Captain Bouchier and the Officers and men connected with him, have had an opportunity of proving themselves worthy members of the Bengal Artillery.

I take this opportunity of remarking that the sluggish and generally unsatisfactory way in which the Sikh Artillery, belonging more especially to the 2nd and 3rd Companies, performed their duties previous to the 7th of September, has been more than blotted out by the zeal and bravery evinced by this branch of our Regiment during the Siege. Some, and amongst them are Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers, are, from various defects, unfit for the service, and as Sir John Lawrence recommended the step, I would suggest that these men be returned to their homes via Lahore and the distinguished promoted in their stead. This would leave us two effective Companies.

In expressing the high satisfaction I experienced in observing the zealous performance of duty on the part of the Foot Artillery with the Army of Delhi, I consider it incumbent on me to bring to special notice of Major General Wilson the Officers and men of H. M.'s 9th Lancers, who were employed in the Batteries as Artillery-men under my command and observation. Lieutenants Evans and Blair are deserving of honorable mention for the zealous and cheerful performance of their duties. The coolness and bravery of Officers and men in situations of extreme danger, whilst engaged in a novel duty, called forth the admiration of all who witnessed, and especially of those who had the satisfaction of serving with them.

Lieutenant Boileau, of H. M.'s 61st Foot, also distinguished himself most honorably, previously to his gallant services in No. 1 Breeching Battery, as did a most deserving and brave young Officer, Lieutenant Ward, of the late 5th Regiment N. I., during and previous to the assault.

The following are the Artillery Officers doing duty under my Command, whose zeal, ability, and coolness in situations of great danger, called forth my especial approbation and thanks:—

Lieutenant A. H. Heath,
 " J. Fulton,
 " Sir W. Hamilton,
 " E. L. Earle,
 " R. T. Hare,
 " R. deL. St. George,
 " H. Chichester,
 " D. S. Pemberton, and

Lieutenant Simon Budd, Riding Master, 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, whose long and faithful services are on record at Regimental Head-Quarters, and Lieutenant T. E. Dickins, who was killed in action whilst serving his Gun in a most effective and gallant way.

It is now my melancholy task to notice most prominently one of our bravest and brightest ornaments, who has run his course, Captain Robert Fagan, the able and gallant Officer who fell mortally wounded on the 12th ultimo, after winning the honest admiration of all. Lieutenant Hildebrand, killed in the Battery I had the honor to Command, as shown in my Report of the services of No. 1 Breeching Battery, was a zealous and gallant Officer.

2. In justice to this deserving Officer, I trust His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be pleased to forward to the Right Hon'ble the Governor General my request that his name may be inserted immediately after that of Superintending Surgeon C. McKinnon, M. D., in the Despatch adverted to.

FROM

TO

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF.

Fort William, 8th January 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that having received intelligence from Mr. Mayne, the Magistrate at Kunnooniagunge, of a large body of rebels having assembled at Munseata, about 12 miles from this on the other side of the Ganges towards Secundra, and knowing that the Lieutenant-Governor wished them to be dispersed, I proceeded from this at 2 A. M. on the morning of the 5th January, in Command of the Force named in the margin.

I arrived at Munseata at day-light, and there found the rebels, about 700 strong, in position on a hill, with three Guns on the opposite side of a ravine. They immediately opened fire without effect. I ordered a Company of the Rifle Brigade under Command of Captain Lindsay, and two Companies of the 79th Highlanders under Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, to advance in skirmishing order, the former on the Enemy's left and the latter on their right. This was done with precision and great quickness. The Guns were ordered in action, but in consequence of the slowness of the bullocks and the celerity with which the Enemy retreated as soon as the Infantry commenced their firing, Colonel Gordon, R. A., was only able to fire one round.

The skirmishers advanced in pursuit, Lieutenant Colonel Douglas following in support with the Guns and main body of the 79th. A good many of the Enemy were shot, and the Force passed through Munseata in the above order to Syrepor, about three miles, where many had posted themselves in a strong-built large house and in other buildings of the village. I regret I failed in taking the Enemy's Guns, which must have been hid by them, as no one saw them carried off at Syrepor. At Syrepor I ordered the Guns to come into action. A few rounds drove the rebels out of the village, and several of them were shot by the Rifles and 79th, who I had sent round each flank of the town, in order to cut off their retreat.

The village was then searched. A Jhissah Thakoor and two Brahmans were found and hanged, one being a pensioned Sepoy of the 71st Native Infantry. Many matchlocks and tulwars were found. At the request of Mr. Mayne, the Magistrate, the village was destroyed.

Immediately after this, Captain Matheson's Troop of Irregular Cavalry joined my force at the suggestion of Mr. Mayne, who knows the country and showed great zeal and gallantry during the whole of the day. I ordered this Troop to leave Hoonnumangunge, in order to endeavour to cut off the retreat of the rebels. This was exceedingly well executed. The Troop attacked the rebels with great gallantry and destroyed 40 or 50 of them. I collected the Troops in a grove of trees and halted to refresh them at 10 A. M.

At 10-30 A. M., Major Anderson, R. H. A., joined our Column, with the wounded detachments of his Troop, which was on the march from Benares to Allahabad. I, after consulting Colonel Wood, C. B., had sent an order to Major A., when I left the Fort, to obtain a guide at Hoonnumangunge and join me at Munseati and act as Cavalry.

At 11 A. M. firing was heard in our rear, and it was reported that the Naib Nizam, with 2,000 men, was coming to attack us. I waited a short time under the trees, then re-formed Royal Horse Artillery on the left, 79th in the centre, Guns on the right, and Rifles in the rear, as I then intended to send the last-named to destroy Paphamow, a small rebel village.

On leaving the wood, I found the Enemy, I think about 1,200 strong, within a mile and a half. I ordered the 79th out to skirmish and Colonel Gordon to come into action as soon as he could. At the same time I ordered the Royal Horse Artillery to cut off the retreat of the Enemy to our left. This was done with great quickness and effectually, about 150 being killed and many of the others driven back on the Infantry and Guns, where many were killed, the 79th and Rifles making some capital shots at long distance.

At this time Mr. Mayne reported he had seen the Nizam. I ordered Major Anderson R. H. A. with half of his Troop, to follow him a short distance. He did not overtake him but killed 100 more of the Enemy, some, I am told, men of consequence in the rebel force. Colonel Wood took Command of the remainder and prevented the rebels in the neighbouring villages, which were burnt from retreating to our left.

At Munseati I halted the Force for a short time, and then marched to Allahabad arriving at 7-30 P. M. All reported present, with the exception of a few men, who came up with the guard that was left in our rear to bring up some carts that arrived at 9 A. M., when all were present.

The Enemy's loss cannot be calculated at less than 400. I have since heard that about that number were seen making their way to Secundra wounded.

I am thankful to say that our loss was only one man of Benares Horse killed and six wounded; the Royal Horse Artillery, two horses killed and five wounded, the Benares Horse, nine horses wounded.

I am much obliged to Lieutenant Colonel Wood, C. B., R. H. A., for his assistance during the day, and also to Lieutenant-Colonel McDonald, Rifle Brigade, who volunteered his service to accompany the Force, and I beg further to state that I was much satisfied with the manner in which Lieutenant-Colonel Douglas, 79th, Commanded the Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor the Companies with which he was detached, Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon the Foot Artillery, Major Anderson Detachments of his Troop R. H. A., Captain Lindsay of the Rifles, and Captain Matheson the Benares Horse. This, I am told, is a newly-raised Corps, and the service they rendered on the 5th and their workman-like appearance, I beg respectfully to say, did them great credit. I sent them home before the Nizam's advance, as they had several wounded men and horses, and did not expect their services would be required.

Brigade-Major Campbell and Captain Maxwell, Officiating Deputy Quarter Master General, were with the Force and performed their duties to my entire satisfaction, and Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon reports that Captain Thurburn afforded him great assistance during the day. I am much obliged to Captain Frazer, 7th Hussars, who kindly acted as my A. D. C. and carried orders correctly and very quickly.

In conclusion I beg to state that I am very much indebted to Mr. Court and Mr. Mayne, Magistrates. The former accompanied me during the day and the latter attached himself to the Cavalry, where he did good service with his sword, and was most useful to the Commanding Officers.

I beg to add that all the Officers and men did a long day's work zealously and cheerfully.

I have the honor to forward a list of casualties.*

POSTSCRIPT.—I have the honor to add for the information of His Excellency, that since the above was written, Mr. Mayne has sent me one of the Enemy's Guns found by his men at Munseati concealed in the ground, and he also reports to me that the Enemy calculated their loss at 500 killed and 300 wounded.

FORT WILLIAM;

Civil Auditor's Office,

The 4th December 1857.

EXTRACT of a Letter from the Financial Secretary to the Government of India, dated 9th November 1857.

PARA. 5. But this arrangement seems to His Lordship in Council to be insufficient. It does not provide, as it ought to do, for deductions from Salary by the Officers of Audit, and His Lordship in Council therefore directs, that in future all cases in which Leave not notified in the Government Gazette is granted to Uncovenanted Servants in excess of the few days provided for in the Financial Resolution, No. 2520, dated the 12th June 1857, shall be reported Monthly (instead of Annually) to the Civil Auditor or the Military Auditor General, as the case may be, in the Form entered in the margin, the Offices of Audit being left to check the amounts entered in the Form at the time the Establishment Bills are sent in to be passed, on the understanding that deductions are invariably to be made, in accordance with the Rules, from the pay of all absentees whose names are entered in the Form (whether they may be in the receipt of 100 Rupees a month or less), except when special directions are issued by the Heads of Offices to make larger deductions, which may be necessary in cases of Officers drawing less than 100 Rupees, whose duties cannot otherwise be provided for without extra expense to Government.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 2524.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 12th June 1857.

READ an Endorsement from the Home Department, No. 795, dated the 21st Ultimo, forwarding, for consideration and orders, a Letter from the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, No. 2208, dated the 6th Idem, having reference to a question connected with the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules.

RESOLUTION.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council observes that the Government of Bombay issued a Circular on the 27th June 1856, declaring that nothing contained in the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules is intended to prevent Heads of Offices from granting casual Leave of Absence from Office, without deduction of Salary, to any Subordinate Officer who, without leaving his Station, may be compelled to remain at home from sickness, for a period not exceeding twenty days in the year, whether continuous or at intervals, that if such casual absence exceed twenty days, the Absentee should be subject to a deduction of one-fourth of his Salary for the period in excess of such twenty days, provided that the entire absence does not exceed two months in the year, and that if such absence exceed two months in the year, the Absentee should be considered as falling under the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules.

Referring to this Circular, instructions are solicited as to whether the excess beyond twenty days' Leave, as it is subjected to a deduction of one-fourth of Salary, should, in calculating period of service for Pension purpose, be taken or not into account as part of the two years allowed by Clause 1 of Section V. of the Uncovenanted Service Absentee Rules, the same as Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate granted under those Rules.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council observes that, under the strict bearing of the Rules, all Leave under Sick Certificate has to be taken into account as part of the two years allowed by Clause 1 of Section V, and seeing that the Circular issued by the Government of Bombay involves a modification of the Rules. His Lordship in Council is of opinion that it should be cancelled, it being understood, however, that casual Leave for a few days may, in cases of sickness, be granted by the Head of the Office at his discretion without loss of Salary, and without such Leave being taken into account as part of the two years allowed by Clause 1 of Section V.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Home Department for communication to the Government of Bombay.

Ordered also that a copy be sent to the Depart-

Ordered further, that a transcript of the above Resolution be sent to the Civil Auditor for his information and guidance.

THE Rule laid down by the Bengal Accountant on the 16th May last, that the Moonshie Allowance of unpassed Civilians is susceptible of adjustment without Audit, being considered by the Accountant General to the Government of India as not in consonance with the spirit of Article 41 of the Orders of 24th January 1854, whereupon it was founded, and the withdrawal of all check over the charge in question being deemed very inexpedient by the latter functionary, it is hereby notified that all Disbursing Officers should henceforth submit for Audit, all receipts for Moonshie Allowance that may be paid by them, with the Certificate of the Students annexed thereto as Voucher.

Legislative Council of India.

The 9th January 1858.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 20th January 1858, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No I of 1858.

An Act to make lawful compulsory labor for the prevention of mischief by inundation, and to provide for the enforcement of customary labor on certain works of irrigation in the Presidency of Fort Saint George

WHEREAS the safety of person and property is endangered by inundations caused by sudden breaches of the embankments of tanks, rivers, and canals, and of anicuts and other like works; and it is necessary for the common good to make it obligatory on persons of the laboring classes, when duly called upon, to unite their labor to prevent such breaches, or to repair them instantly: and whereas it is expedient to make legal provision for the enforcement of the duty, which by local custom is incumbent on village communities, to furnish the labor required for the execution of certain works for the purpose of irrigation and drainage; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Whenever it shall appear to the Officer in charge of any tank, river, or canal, or of any anicut or other like work, that there is imminent danger of the embankment of such tank, river, or canal being breached, or of a breach being made in such anicut or other work, and of a destructive inundation being caused thereby, which may be prevented by a large body of laborers immediately working together to strengthen the embankment or other work, or when such a breach has occurred, if it shall appear to such Officer that it can be repaired, and the inundation caused by it be stopped, by the immediate employment of a large body of laborers for that purpose—it shall be lawful for such Officer to require the head or heads of the village or villages in the vicinity to call upon all able-bodied male persons of the laboring classes in such village or villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach as the case may be. In the absence of the said Officer, it shall be lawful for the Tehsildar of the talook to make such requisition in his stead. And if neither the said Officer nor the Tehsildar is on the spot, and the emergency is great and urgent, it shall be lawful for the head of the village in which the breach is expected to occur or has occurred, of his own motion to call upon the laborers as aforesaid of his own village, and, if needful, to make a requisition to the heads of the neighboring villages to call likewise upon the laborers of their villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach.

II. Any male person of the laboring classes being duly called upon by the head of his village to labor as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to comply with such call without any lawful excuse, shall on conviction before a Magistrate or an Officer exercising the ordinary powers of a Magistrate, be punished with a fine which may extend to one hundred Rupees, or with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with both.

III. Every person who shall be employed on such work under such requisition shall be paid for his labor by day at the highest rate paid in the neighbourhood.

Punishment for refusing or neglecting to comply with such call

Rate of remuneration for laborers so employed.

or similar work, and, if he is required to work at night, at double such rate.

IV. Payment shall be made to the laborers from the public Treasury ; and if the laborers shall have been employed upon a work belonging to a private person, the amount advanced from the Treasury shall be recoverable from such person by the same means which may be lawfully used for the recovery of arrears of Land Revenue

V. It shall be lawful for heads of villages, on the requisition of the Officer in charge of such works as aforesaid, or in his absence on the requisition of the Tehsildar, or, in case of emergency when neither such Officer nor the Tehsildar is on the spot, of their own motion, to make requisitions upon the inhabitants of their villages for the supply of materials, to wit, trees and leaves, bamboos, straw, and the like, necessary for stopping breaches in the embankments of tanks, rivers, and canals, and to seize and if necessary to cut down such articles wherever they may be found, giving receipts for them in writing ; such supplies shall be paid for from the public Treasury at the highest prices for which such articles are sold in the neighborhood, and in case damage is sustained by any person in consequence of the cutting down of any such articles, compensation shall be made for such damage, the amount of which compensation shall in case of dispute, be determined in the same manner as amounts payable under Section VI. When the work for which such articles are used belongs to a private person, the amount advanced from the Treasury shall be recoverable from him by the same means by which arrears of Land Revenue are recoverable

VI. Whenever by local custom any work for the purpose of irrigation or drainage or connected therewith is usually executed by the joint labor of a village community, any person bound by such custom to contribute labor to such work, who neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to comply with a requisition for such customary aid made to him by the head of the village under the orders of the Tehsildar or other superior Revenue Officer, shall be liable to pay a sum equal to twice the value of the labor which he is bound to contribute. The amount so payable shall, in case of dispute, be determined summarily by a Village or District Panchayet assembled by order of the Collector through the Village or District Moonsiff according to the rules for assembling such Panchayets prescribed in Regulations V and VII of 1816. Such amount shall be payable on demand ; and on non-payment the same may be recovered by the same means by which arrears of Land Revenue are recoverable. General of India in Council.

Fort William, 23rd January 1858

No. 135 of 1858.—The Head Quarters of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, arrived in the Steam Ship Australian, is brought on the Establishment of the Bengal Presidency from date of landing.

No. 134 of 1858.—The following Notification, from the Financial Department, is published in General Orders :

No. 4 dated 22nd January 1858.—Notification—Read again the following papers :—

Extract Public Works Department No 1443, dated 27th March 1857 with its enclosure.

Read an Office Memo No 6496, dated the 30th Ultimo, from the Public Works Department, with its Enclosure relative to the salary to be passed to an Uncovenanted Servant from the date of his return from Furlough up to the date of joining his appointment.

RESOLUTION.—On the 21st August 1856, Mr T. Logan, Executive Officer, Bassam River, obtained, under Section VIII,* Clause 3, of the Uncovenanted Service Absence Rules leave of absence to Europe for a period of six months. He was subsequently allowed by the Hon'ble Court, as a special case, nine months' leave of absence without pay, in addition to the six months already taken, thereby extending to fifteen months the whole period of his authorized absence from India; and which period, the Hon'ble Court directed, was to be regarded as if authorized under Section VIII† of the above Rules.

Mr Logan having returned from England on the 31st October last, the Officiating Chief Engineer, Lower Provinces, solicits orders regarding the salary to be passed to him from that date up to the 28th November last the date of his arrival at Purneah, the Head Quarters of the Division (Darjeeling Road), to which he is now attached.

The Officiating Secretary in the Public Works Department suggests the expediency of laying down general rules (if such Rules do not already exist) to meet the case of Uncovenanted Officers who like Mr Logan may not join appointments immediately on return from Furlough.

Referring to this suggestion, His Lordship in Council remarks that leave may be granted to Uncovenanted Servants repatriated to Furlough on private affairs, or for return to Station after the expiration of Furlough only on the terms of Section VIII† of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absence Rules, for the period specified in the Financial Notification of 14th October 1857, viz. four, six, or eight weeks, according as the distance to be travelled shall not exceed 300 or 600 miles, without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay; the period of absence not counting as service towards pension.

If the Furlough, however, be enjoyed in India, no preparatory leave is to be granted, the Furlough being reckoned from the date of the absentee's quitting his post to the date of his return thereto.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Public Works Department, with a request that Mr Logan's case be treated under the Rule above laid down.

RESOLUTION.—The Hon'ble the Court of Directors having decided, in the case of Captain W. E. Hay, a retired Military Officer, subsequently appointed Assistant Commissioner at Kâlû in the Punjab, that the Rule under which Civil Pension is merged in the salary of Office should apply to the case of Military Officers drawing Pensions for Military Service, and that upon this principle Captain Hay should be allowed the authorized salary of his appointment minus the amount of his Pension the Chief Commissioner in the Punjab enquires whether this decision is applicable to Military Pensioners of the grade of Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates who may be employed in the Uncovenanted Service as Clerks.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council observes that in Bengal measures have been taken to regulate the allowances of Military Pensioners of every grade who have been re-employed in the Civil Department according to the above orders of the Hon'ble Court, which must be the guide for the future.

ACT No I of 1858.

An Act to make lawful compulsory labor for the prevention of mischief by inundation, and to provide for the enforcement of customary labor on certain works of irrigation in the Presidency of Port Saint George.

WHEREAS the safety of person and property is endangered by inundations caused by sudden breaches of the embankments of tanks, rivers, and canals, and of anicuts and other like works; and it is necessary for the common good to make it obligatory on persons of the laboring classes, when duly called upon, to unite their labor to prevent such breaches, or to repair them instantly: and whereas it is expedient to make legal provision for the enforcement of the duty, which by local custom is incumbent on village communities, to furnish the labor required for the execution of certain works for the purpose of irrigation and drainage; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Whenever it shall appear to the Officer in charge of any tank, river, or canal, or of any anicut or other like work, that there is imminent danger of the embankment of such tank, river, or canal being breached, or of a breach being made in such anicut or other work, and of a destructive inundation being caused thereby, which may be prevented by a large body of laborers immediately working together to strengthen the embankment or other work; or when such a breach has occurred, if it shall appear to such Officer that it can be repaired, and the inundation caused by it be stopped, by the immediate employment of a large body of laborers for that purpose—it shall be lawful for such Officer to require the head or heads of the village or villages in the vicinity to call upon all able-bodied male persons of the laboring classes in such village or villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach as the case may be. In the absence of the said Officer, it shall be lawful for the Tehsildar of the talook to make such requisition in his stead. And if neither the said Officer nor the Tehsildar is on the spot, and the emergency is great and urgent, it shall be lawful for the head of the village in which the breach is expected to occur or has occurred, of his own motion to call upon the laborers as aforesaid of his own village, and, if needful, to make a requisition to the heads of the neighboring villages to call likewise upon the laborers of their villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach.

II. Any male person of the laboring classes being duly called upon by the head of his village to labor as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to comply with such call without any lawful excuse, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate or an Officer exercising the ordinary powers of a Magistrate, be punished with a fine which may extend to one hundred Rupees, or with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with both.

VI. Whenever by local custom any work for the purpose of irrigation or drainage or connected therewith is usually executed by the joint labor of a village community, any person bound by such custom to contribute labor to such work, who neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to comply with a requisition for such customary aid made to him by the head of the village under the orders of the Tehsildar or other superior Revenue Officer, shall be liable to pay a sum equal to twice the value of the labor which he is bound to contribute. The amount so payable shall, in case of dispute, be determined summarily by a Village or District Panchayet assembled by order of the Collector through the Village or District Moonsiff according to the rules for assembling such Panchayets prescribed in Regulations V and VII of 1816. Financial Department.

No. 85 of 1857.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

1. We have had under consideration the position in which the wives and families, resident in this Country, of our Military Officers, are placed by the cessation, consequent on the present disturbed state of certain parts of India, of the remittances which have hitherto been made for their subsistence, and we have determined, as a temporary measure, that in all cases in which the parents, wives, guardians of the children, or brothers or sisters of the Company's Military or Medical Officers, or Chaplains, may produce satisfactory evidence of their having been in the receipt of Family Remittances from India, whether through our Home Treasury, or by means of private Agency, and of the stoppage of those remittances having been caused by the recent outbreak in India, a sum not exceeding the amount hitherto remitted, or the maximum allowed to be remitted through our Treasury by an Officer of each grade, shall be advanced quarterly to the relatives of such Officers, or to the guardians of their children, commencing with the first quarter after the receipt of the last remittance; and we have extended the benefit of this arrangement to those Officers' wives and families who have recently returned, or may yet arrive from India, and who, from the cause above adverted to, have had no arrangements made for their subsistence in this Country.

2. As the sums so advanced by us will be recoverable from the pay of the several Officers, we shall apprise you from time to time of the advances made; and you will cause each Officer, whose family may have been admitted to the benefit of the arrangement, to be informed thereof, thus affording him the opportunity of requesting the discontinuance of the advances, should he think fit. In the event of the decease of any of those Officers, the amount will be recoverable from the Pensions to which their families may be entitled from Lord Clive's Fund, or from any of the Indian Military Funds.

3. We forward in the Packet a statement of the advances made to the date of this Despatch.

We are, &c.

C. MILLS,

And other Directors.

ACT No I OF 1858.

An Act to make lawful compulsory labor for the prevention of mischief by inundation, and to provide for the enforcement of customary labor on certain works of irrigation in the Presidency of Fort Saint George.

WHEREAS the safety of person and property is endangered by inundations caused by sudden breaches of the embankments of tanks, rivers, and canals, and of anicuts and other like works; and it is necessary for the common good to make it obligatory on persons of the laboring classes, when duly called upon, to unite their labor to prevent such breaches, or to repair them instantly: and whereas it is expedient to make legal provision for the enforcement of the duty, which by local custom is incumbent on village communities, to furnish the labor required for the execution of certain works for the purpose of irrigation and drainage; It is enacted as follows:—

I. Whenever it shall appear to the Officer in charge of any tank, river, or canal, or of any anicut or other like work, that there is imminent danger of the embankment of such tank, river, or canal being breached, or of a breach being made in such anicut or other work, and of a destructive inundation being caused thereby, which may be prevented by a large body of laborers immediately working together to strengthen the embankment or other work; or when such a breach has occurred, if it shall appear to such Officer that it can be repaired, and the inundation caused by it be stopped, by the immediate employment of a large body of laborers for that purpose—it shall be lawful for such Officer to require the head or heads of the village or villages in the vicinity to call upon all able-bodied male persons of the laboring classes in such village or villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach as the case may be. In the absence of the said Officer, it shall be lawful for the Tehsildar of the talook to make such requisition in his stead. And if neither the said Officer nor the Tehsildar is on the spot, and the emergency is great and urgent, it shall be lawful for the head of the village in which the breach is expected to occur or has occurred, of his own motion to call upon the laborers as aforesaid of his own village, and, if needful, to make a requisition to the heads of the neighboring villages to call likewise upon the laborers of their villages to co-operate in the work necessary for preventing or repairing the breach.

II. Any male person of the laboring classes being duly called upon by the head of his village to labor as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to comply with such call without any lawful excuse, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate or an Officer exercising the ordinary powers of a Magistrate, be punished with a fine which may extend to one hundred Rupees, or with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with both.

III. Every person who shall be employed on such work under such requisition shall be paid for his labor by day at the highest rate paid in the neighbourhood or similar work, and, if he is required to work at night, at double such rate.

IV. Payment shall be made to the laborers from the public Treasury ; and if the laborers shall have been employed upon a work belonging to a private person, the amount advanced from the Treasury shall be recoverable from such person by the same means which may be lawfully used for the recovery of arrears of Land Revenue.

V. It shall be lawful for heads of villages, on the requisition of the Officer in charge of such works as aforesaid, or in his absence on the requisition of the Tehsildar, or, in case of emergency when neither such Officer nor the Tehsildar is on the spot, of their own motion, to make requisitions upon the inhabitants of their villages for the supply of materials, to wit, trees and leaves, bamboos, straw, and the like, necessary for stopping breaches in the embankments of tanks, rivers, and canals, and to seize and if necessary to cut down such articles wherever they may be found, giving receipts for them in writing ; such supplies shall be paid for from the public Treasury at the highest prices for which such articles are sold in the neighborhood ; and in case damage is sustained by any person in consequence of the cutting down of any such articles, compensation shall be made for such damage, the amount of which compensation shall, in case of dispute, be determined in the same manner as amounts payable under Section VI. When the work for which such articles are used belongs to a private person, the amount advanced from the Treasury shall be recoverable from him by the same means by which arrears of Land Revenue are recoverable.

VI. Whenever by local custom any work for the purpose of irrigation or drainage or connected therewith is usually executed by the joint labor of a village community, any person bound by such custom to contribute labor to such work, who neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to comply with a requisition for such customary aid made to him by the head of the village under the orders of the Tehsildar or other superior Revenue Officer, shall be liable to pay a sum equal to twice the value of the labor which he is bound to contribute. The amount so payable shall, in case of dispute, be determined summarily by a Village or District Panchayet assembled by order of the Collector through the Village or District Moonsiff according to the rules for assembling such Panchayets prescribed in Regulations V and VII of 1816. Such amount shall be payable on demand ; and on non-payment the same may be recovered by the same means by which arrears of Land Revenue are recoverable. All sums paid or recovered under this Section shall be applicable to the expenses of any works for the purpose of irrigation or drainage executed for the benefit of the village communities to which the defaulters respectively belong.

Fort William, 29th January 1858

No 181 of 1858 — A question having been raised by Major-General Sir A Wilson But K C B, on behalf of the Troops comprising the Field Force engaged in the operations before Delhi, whether it was the intention of the Governor General in Council that the functions of the Prize Agents appointed by him should cease upon the issuing of the General Order, No 1499 of 1857 it is hereby notified, for general information that the above-mentioned General Order affects only public property belonging to the State and property belonging to private individuals, who should establish their claim to restitution by clearly identifying the property as their own, and in the case of Natives, by proving, to the satisfaction of the Committee appointed under the provisions of the aforesaid General Order, that they have not been guilty of any offence for which they would be liable to the forfeiture of their property, and that they have, to the best of their ability, rendered active assistance to the British Government. The Order was not intended to affect property belonging to Rebels or Mutineers or property belonging to individuals who either should neglect to claim it or who having claimed it should fail to make out their title to restitution in the manner prescribed. Such property will remain under the control of the Prize Agents, until the orders of Her Most Gracious Majesty respecting it shall be made known.

The Government has not the power to give up to the Army the property of private individuals of undoubted loyalty, which may have been captured but the Governor General in Council avails himself of this opportunity to correct a misapprehension which exists, that the donation of six months' Batta (ordered to be forthwith distributed) to the Troops engaged in the operations against Delhi, was intended to be in lieu of all other claims, and His Lordship in Council informs the Army, that he has expressed to the Hon'ble Court of Directors the opinion of the Government of India, that all movable property of the description ordinarily distributable as Prize, belonging, or which may reasonably be presumed to belong, to Rebels or Mutineers, and which has been or shall be captured by the Troops engaged in suppressing the Rebellion, may be fairly treated as Prize, and that he has recommended the Hon'ble Court to adopt the necessary measures for obtaining Her Majesty's sanction to the distribution of such property accordingly.

No 182 of 1858 — The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from Major General Sir James Outram G. C. B., reporting the repulse of a large body of the Enemy, who made an unsuccessful attack on his position on the 12th Instant.

His Lordship in Council expresses his entire satisfaction with the manner in which Major General Sir J. Outram, G. C. B., has conducted this affair, and with the behaviour of the Troops engaged on the occasion.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief to enclose for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council Copy of a Despatch* from Major-General Sir James Outram, G. C. B. reporting the repulse of a large body of the Enemy who made an unsuccessful attack on his position on the 12th Instant.

2. Sir James Outram's dispositions appear to have been made with such forethought as enabled him to inflict considerable loss on the Rebels without unnecessarily exposing his own Troops.

I have, &c,

FROM

MAJOR GENERAL J. OUTRAM,

Commanding in Oude,

TO

GENERAL W. R. MANSFIELD,

Chief of the Staff of the Army in the East Indies

Camp, Alum Bagh, 12th Jan. 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the Rebels of Lucknow attacked my position this morning, and were repulsed with considerable loss.

In consequence of reports that Mansoob Allie was collecting men and receiving re-inforcements from Lucknow, to intercept my communications, I sent a stronger escort than usual with my Convoy, now on its way from Cawnpore, consisting of 450 Infantry, 4 Guns and 80 Cavalry.

The Rebels were encouraged by this reduction of my Force to meditate an attack, of which I received information, for several days, and yesterday evening more definite accounts led me to expect them at sunrise this morning. I therefore made such dispositions of my Force and Outposts as were necessary, and the Troops breakfasted at daybreak, and were all in readiness.

About sunrise this morning, large masses of the Enemy were seen on my left front, and they gradually spread round the whole front and flanks of the position, extending from opposite to our left rear outpost to near Jellalabad on our right—a distance of at least six miles, and amounting at the lowest estimation to 30,000 men.

As soon as their movements were decidedly in advance, the Brigades—the Right mustering 713 and the Left 733 Europeans and 100 men of the Regiment of Ferozepore,—were formed in front of their lines.

The Enemy first advanced upon my left front and flank, covered by a large body of Skirmishers, on which I detached two Regiments of the Left Brigade to support the outposts, and extended in skirmishing order on their flanks, whilst the third Regiment was held in reserve; at the same time Major Olpherts, with four Horse Battery Guns, supported by a Detachment of the Military Train, was directed to check the Enemy on my left rear, where their Cavalry showed in the greatest strength. The Volunteer and Native Cavalry were drawn up to protect the rear of the Camp, which at this time appeared to be threatened.

The Right Brigade remained on its ground.

As soon as the Enemy were fairly within range they were exposed to a severe fire of Artillery from Alum Bagh, and from the advanced Batteries of my outposts on the left front and centre, and fled with the utmost precipitation, without having come within musket range, except at the left centre outpost, Commanded by Captain Down, 1st Madras Fusiliers, where a considerable number entered a grove of trees usually occupied by our outlying picquets, from which they were driven in a few minutes by the Skirmishers of the outpost.

On the left rear Major Olpherts moved out his Guns at a gallop, and advancing well to his front completely drove off and dispersed a very large body of Infantry and Cavalry which was endeavouring to penetrate to our rear, turning them back towards the City, and doing much execution by the fire of his Guns on their masses at 500 yards.

At this time I received a report that Alum Bagh and my right advanced outpost of Jellalabad were threatened, and on proceeding to the right I found that the Enemy had brought three Horse Artillery Guns, supported by an immense mass of Infantry, against the picquet which connects my right with Jellalabad, and which had been strengthened to 100 men with two Guns. I moved the Regiment of Ferozepore and the 5th Fusiliers with two Guns of Moir's Bullock Battery from the Right Brigade to the front, taking the Enemy in flank and driving them back. They were then exposed to the fire of Maude's Guns from Alum Bagh, which played upon them with great effect.

About this time the Enemy again advanced on the left front and flank, their Cavalry on this occasion being more to the front than before. A party of the latter galloped up to the Rifle-pits in front of the left advanced outpost, but Alexander's and Clarke's Guns opened on them and drove them back in confusion.

About the same time the Enemy on the right, again advancing from the heavy cover of groves and villages into which they had retreated, reopened their Guns on the Jellalabad Picquet; but were finally silenced and driven off by the fire of Moir's two Guns which had been sent to the picquet to reinforce it, and replace the two Guns originally there, which had been withdrawn to Jellalabad.

Simultaneously with the attack above described the Enemy advanced upon Alum Bagh and established themselves in the nearest cover, notwithstanding that they were seen to suffer severely from the Artillery and Rifle fire. About noon they also advanced into the open ground, and were immediately dispersed and driven back by the fire of Maude's Guns and the Riflemen from Alum Bagh.

By 4 o'clock P. M. the whole of the Enemy had disappeared and retired to the City or to their original positions in the gardens and villages in our front.

Nothing could exceed the eagerness of the Troops to come in contact with the Rebels, nor their disappointment at their precipitate flight to the cover of their works the moment the Guns opened and our line of Skirmishers advanced.

The Artillery made excellent practice on the masses of the Enemy, and in reply to the fire from their Batteries which was maintained on our outposts and Alum Bagh with little intermission.

The casualties amount to one Officer slightly, three Privates slightly, and two severely wounded.

I take this opportunity of sending a Return of Casualties during the last fortnight, including to-day's.

The steadiness of the Troops and the promptitude with which my orders were carried out by my Officers gives me every assurance that the Enemy's attack, if it had been as formidable as their forces were numerous, would have been as signally defeated.

The Governor General in Council tenders his warm acknowledgments to Brigadier C. S. Stuart, Commanding Malwa Field Force, to Major W. A. TO

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Bombay.

SIR,

WITH reference to my telegrams of the 25th and 26th instant, I have now the honor to forward the Reports, and to communicate for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief full particulars of the successful operations in which the Malwa Field Force, and the Field Force Hyderabad Contingent, under Command of Major Orr, were engaged on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th instant, against the Rebel Enemy, in the vicinity of Mundesore.

2. On the morning of the 21st November, the Force, accompanied by the Field Force Hyderabad Contingent, which, as I have already reported, is co-operating with me under Command of Major Orr, arrived within three miles and a half of Mundesore about 9 A. M.; and as I had no good information as to the roads or the country in the immediate vicinity of the Town, neither as to the fords of the River Sowna, which it was necessary to cross before reaching the Town, I determined upon encamping, until a good reconnoissance had been effected. The Rebel Enemy at Mundesore, hearing of our approach, had posted Picquets, entirely covering the country over which we were advancing, and observing our Picquets thrown out, they mustered in some force outside the walls of the Town, and appeared inclined to attack. I, however, contented myself with reinforcing the Picquets; and leaving the whole charge of the front to Major Robertson, 25th Regiment Native Infantry, the Field Officer of the day, returned to Camp. About 3 o'clock P. M., I received intimation from him, that the Enemy were advancing in force and threatening both our flanks and centre at the same time. I accordingly moved out to meet them; they advanced steadily with banners flying, and appeared in great numbers. On approaching our right front, however, they were most gallantly charged by Lieutenant Dew, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, who, with some of his men, occupied that ground as a Picquet; Captain Orr, Commanding 3rd Regiment Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, supported Lieutenant Dew, and the Enemy were driven back with great loss; and before our Guns, which had quickly moved up, could open upon them, the attack on our centre was repulsed by a few rounds of our Artillery, whilst that on the left was successfully met by the Field Force under Major Orr. The Enemy having been thus driven back at all points, were pursued for some distance, in fact until they nearly reached the walls of the Town, and nothing further occurred that day.

3. Having received intelligence from the Governor General's Agent, that the portion of the Rebel Army before Neemuch, amounting to about five thousand, would probably raise the siege of that place, and endeavor to effect a junction with their Head Quarters at Mundesore, I determined to frustrate this, by intercepting them. Accordingly, early on the morning of the 22nd instant, I moved forward my Force in order of battle; our advance was unopposed; and on my left flank reaching the village of Kulgipore, I made a flank movement to the left, as previously determined on, leaving the Advance Guard to cover it and to reinforce the Rear Guard, as we crossed the "Bakri" ford of the River Sowna, about 1,400 yards to the S. W. of the Town of Mundesore. Thus secured, the movement was safely effected, opposed only by a slight and ineffective fire from a Gun on one of the S. W. bastions of the Town. I then encamped, facing the West of the Town, my flanks well protected by the two branches of the river, and my line running at right angles to the right of Sir Thomas Hislop's Camp in 1817. Just previous to the Camp being marked out, it was reported that Cavalry were seen on the left, and Major Orr, taking the 1st Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent under Captain Abbott, and 4th Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent under Captain Murray, saw about 300 horse, supposed to be under Heera Sing, endeavoring to draw them off in a North-Westerly direction, but keeping at too great a distance to allow of being attacked. Reinforcements of Cavalry were sent for, and whilst the Left Wing Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons under Captain Gall, and 3rd Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, under Lieutenant Clerk, were moving up, intelligence was brought to Major Orr, that Heera Sing's Baggage had just left the village of Goraria, on the Neemuch road. The object of Heera Sing's party to draw our Cavalry away from his Baggage thus being apparent, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, the 1st Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, and the 4th Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent galloped off in pursuit, the 3rd Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent remaining as a reserve. They caught up the Enemy about two miles South of Peeplia, and after cutting up about 200 of them, halted at a Nullah a mile to the South of that village. On perceiving it strongly occupied by the Enemy's Infantry, who showed many standards, they then returned to Camp.

4. Feeling assured that the Infantry seen in Peeplia formed the Advance Guard of the Enemy, I moved at 8 o'clock A. M. on the 23rd instant, by my left, and crossed the Northern branch of the River Sowna. I then halted my Column, and collected all my Baggage on the reverse flank, then moving on to my proposed Camp on the Neemuch and Mundesore road, ready to oppose the Enemy either from one or the other direction. On coming on to the ground, the Enemy appeared in great force to the North; so, ordering my Baggage to be collected on a strong mound, I strongly reinforced my Rear Guard and proceeded to meet them. After a short advance, I formed line to my front facing Northwards, and found the Enemy occupying a very strong position, with their right in, and beyond the village of Goraria, their right centre covered by a date nullah and lines of date trees, their Battery of six Guns on a rising ground, with a large mud hut protecting their Gunners, and their left stretched along the ridge running East from the village. My line advanced, covered by skirmishers; the Enemy's Infantry, with banners flying (many of them green), moved down to meet us through the intermediate fields of high Jowarry, and their Guns opened fire. I immediately halted my line and replied to the fire with Captain Hungerford's and Woolcombe's Batteries, at a range of about 900 yards. After a few rounds, I again advanced the line and permitted Captain Hungerford to move his half Battery to a position on our right front, from which he could enfilade the Enemy. After an advance of about three hundred yards, our line was again halted, and firing resumed, that from both Batteries being very effective; a most gallant charge was then made on the Enemy's Guns by the Escort of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, attached to Captain Hungerford, under Lieutenant Martin, who found, however, that the position was still very strongly held by the Enemy's Infantry, and was compelled to retire, he himself being very severely wounded. Captain Hungerford's half Battery was again advanced to within one hundred yards, and after a round or two of grape, the Guns were at once again charged and captured, the Enemy flying in great numbers into the village to their right. The 3rd Regiment of Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, under Captain S. Orr, was just at this moment rapidly advanced by our right front, and having been wheeled to the left, it swept down upon them in their retreat and killed great numbers. Our line then changed front about the eighth of a circle, right thrown forward, and moved steadily on the village, which evidently held great numbers of the Enemy. Their skirmishers disputed our advance, but were soon driven back. Having halted within about three hundred yards of the village, our Artillery opened upon it with shot and shell, after which I directed the Infantry to advance and carry it. The men of the 86th and 25th Regiments dashed forward in the most gallant manner, and having entered the village, commenced to drive all before them. They soon met, however, with very warm opposition, the Enemy having taken possession in great force of many houses, from which a most harassing fire was kept up on our men. Under these circumstances, and as, moreover, I could get no satisfactory accounts of what was passing in my rear, which I knew from the firing I heard, as also from the pressing applications I had received for reinforcements, had been warmly engaged, I re-called the Infantry and posted strong Picquets all round the village, and moved the remainder of the men a short distance off to where the Baggage had been passed up from the rear. I then learnt that, during the afternoon, when we were hotly engaged in the front, a strong body of the Enemy from Mundesore attacked our rear and endeavored to carry off the Siege Train, Baggage, &c. They were, however, most gallantly repulsed on every occasion. In one of these attacks, I regret to say, that Lieutenant Redmayne, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, was killed, whilst most bravely leading his men against the Enemy, notwithstanding the many attempts made by the Enemy to press upon and harass our rear. It gives me great satisfaction to be able to state, that not a particle of Baggage was lost, nor a follower injured on this occasion. Lieutenant Leith, Commanding a Squadron 14th Light Dragoons, appears to have done good service, as also Lieutenant Fenwick, 25th Regiment Native Infantry, in charge of the Baggage; Gunner Maitland, of the Bengal Artillery, and Gunner Thomson, of the Bombay Artillery, also distinguished themselves by assisting to work the heavy Guns most effectively against the Enemy.

5. On the 24th instant, I arranged with Captain Hungerford, Commandant of Artillery, that the village of Goraria, in which the Rebels had taken refuge, should be well shelled, and again assaulted by the Infantry. Accordingly, I moved up to it about noon, and found that the Enemy were as I had left them the preceding evening, excepting that a few had attempted to escape, nearly all of whom were killed. After a heavy fire of three hours' duration, the Detachment Her Majesty's 86th Regiment under Command of Major Keane, and the 25th Regiment Native Infantry under Major Robertson, again stormed the village and carried it, killing great numbers of the Enemy; they themselves also suffering severely. At sun-set, I withdrew the Troops, intending to move against the Fort of Mundesore the next day. Early, however, on the morning of the 25th instant, intelligence reached me that the Enemy had, during the night, completely evacuated Mundesore, and were scattered in flight throughout the country in various directions, having lost, it is computed, about 1,500 of their number during our operations against them. I accordingly removed my Camp to Mundesore, and am now engaged in dismantling the Fort, destroying the Guns, &c., before leaving this neighborhood.

6. By the successful operations of the Malwa Field Force and Field Force Hyderabad Contingent in the vicinity of Mundesore, the Neemuch Garrison has been relieved from the assault with which it was threatened; the Insurgent Rebels have been dispersed from their stronghold, in which, for months past, they have been daily collecting all those disaffected to our rule; and peace and order will now, it is to be hoped, be re-established in these Districts.

7. I must now, in conclusion, place on record my grateful acknowledgments to Colonel Durand, Officiating Agent to the Governor General for Central India, for his cordial assistance to me on all occasions. He was present in the Field throughout the operations, and gave me the benefit of his advice, which proved of great service to me. Major Orr, Commanding Field Force Hyderabad Contingent, most ably co-operated with me on all occasions, and to him, and all under his Command, I am very much indebted. To Major Boileau, Field Engineer, and his Assistants, Lieutenants Prendergast (severely wounded) and Gordon; to Captain Mayne, Intelligence Department; to Captain Coley, Major of Brigade; to Lieutenant Macdonald, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; to Lieutenant Thain, Sub-Assistant Commissary General, and to Surgeon Mackenzie, Staff Surgeon—my warmest thanks are due. The assistance rendered me by these Officers left me nothing to wish for. A perusal of the Report made by Captain Gall, Commanding Left Wing Her

The assistance rendered me by these Officers left me nothing to wish for. A perusal of the Report made by Captain Gall, Commanding Left Wing Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, will convey to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief some idea of the good service performed by all Ranks under his Command. I most fully concur in Captain Gall's Report, and beg to commend to the consideration of His Excellency all the Officers and Men mentioned by him. Of Captain Gall himself, I must, in justice, add, that a more able, zealous, and hard-working Officer I have never met with, nor one more worthy of distinction. Of Captain Orr, 3rd Regiment Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, and the Officers and Men under his Command, I have already had reason to send the most favorable Report to the Resident at Hyderabad. On this last occasion, nothing could surpass the bravery shown by all Ranks of this Regiment. Captain Orr himself is, I consider, a first-rate Cavalry Officer; his daring courage is admired by all; and in every affair in which he is engaged, his personal combats are most prominent features. To Captain Hungerford, Commandant of Artillery, Malwa Field Force, and to Captain Woolcombe, Commanding No. 4 Light Field Battery, and the Officers and Men under their Command, my best thanks are due. I do not think Artillery practice could have been better, and there can be but little doubt that the successful issue of operations is much to be attributed to their assistance. Of the conduct of Captain Brown and the Officers and Men of the B. Company Madras Sappers and Miners, I have much pleasure in speaking in the highest terms; whether as Sappers, or as Infantry, they have distinguished themselves on every occasion: they have undergone an incredible amount of hard labor during our late march with a Siege Train over a country without roads: nor must I omit to mention that they accompanied the Storming Parties into the village of Goraria and proved of the greatest service. My best thanks are also due to Major Keane and the Officers and Men of the Detachment Her Majesty's 86th Regiment. The gallantry of all Ranks was most conspicuous, and on both occasions that the village was assaulted, the coolness and daring of the Officers and Men, at whose head Major Keane placed himself, elicited the praise of all. My Despatch from Dhar will have made His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief aware of the very high opinion I held of Major Robertson and the Officers and Men of the 25th Regiment Native Infantry. During the late operations nothing could have been finer than the behaviour of all in this Regiment. Major Robertson distinguished himself on the 21st instant as Field Officer of the day, in the disposition of the Picquets, which duty I entirely confided to him, and by the skilful manner in which he met the attack made upon him in force on the afternoon of that day. During the succeeding days Major Robertson rendered me the greatest assistance; the manner in which he led his Regiment on two occasions, to storm the village of Goraria, is beyond praise, and I consider that the admirable conduct of the 25th Regiment Native Infantry fully attests the worth of this Officer, who will, I hope, meet with some mark of distinction. In the praise conveyed to Captain Little, 25th Regiment Native Infantry, by his Commanding Officer, I quite concur, and trust that His Excellency may be able to grant some mark of favor to this deserving Officer. In the two attacks on the village of Goraria, I could see no difference between the conduct of the men of the 25th Regiment Native Infantry and their comrades of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment; the same daring and gallantry characterized both; their list of casualties will show how warmly they were engaged, and I trust His Excellency will recognize the merits of this Regiment. Before closing this Despatch, I beg to report on the admirable conduct of Assistant Surgeon Butler, 4-2 Artillery, who, during the engagement on the 23rd instant, though suffering severely from sickness, left his Dooley, and was engaged in the most active manner during the whole day, in assisting to administer comfort to the wounded. The conduct of this Officer has been brought to my notice by the Staff Surgeon of the Force, and will I trust meet with some reward.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

Dy. Asst. Qr. Mr. Genl.,
Malwa Field Force.

Camp near Mundasore, 25th Nov. 1857.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for submission to the Brigadier Commanding Malwa Field Force a Report of the part taken by the Field Force Hyderabad Contingent under my Command during the operations near Mundasore, commencing from the 21st instant.

2. On the forenoon of that date, after making arrangements for the safety of my Camp, I directed a village, on the extreme left, to be occupied and held by a party of Cavalry and Infantry, as its possession appeared of importance. About 2 o'clock P. M. it was reported that the village was threatened. On reaching the spot, I found a strong body of the Enemy, horse and footmen, moving out into the open country, and advancing with much boldness. I directed reinforcements and Guns to be brought up at once, but before these could arrive, the Enemy had succeeded in forcing back the Picquet and occupying the village. On being joined by the Guns and Infantry, with the 1st and 4th Regiments of Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent, the Artillery, assisted by two Guns of the Bombay (Captain Woolcombe's) Battery, under Command of Lieutenant Strutt, opened a very well directed and effective fire, which cleared the village and forced back the Insurgents. It was again occupied by our Troops, the Enemy retiring slowly and in considerable force towards Mundasore. My orders being explicit on the subject of not forcing a general engagement, I contented myself with retaining possession of the village.

3. On the morning of the 22nd, the Force, by a flank movement, crossed the river and encamped on the West side of the Town of Mundasore. Whilst making a reconnoissance with Captain McDonald, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, two bodies of the Enemy were observed moving away.

These consisted principally of horsemen. One got away too rapidly for pursuit, but the other was gent Cavalry. The pursuit was stayed by our finding a large body of the Enemy drawn up in our front, in a strong position, in a village, against which Cavalry could not act.

4. On the Enemy being observed in strength to the left of the village of Goraria, whilst the Column was en route on the morning of the 23rd, I received the directions of the Brigadier Commanding to deploy with my Force, to support the general attack, and to conform my movements to those of the Column. These directions were implicitly carried out; the Cavalry was held ready whenever it might be necessary to act; and to prevent any attempt on the left flank, a Detachment of two Companies of the 3rd Infantry Hyderabad Contingent, under Command of Captain Sinclair, with two Guns of the 1st Company Artillery, was ordered to reinforce the Rear Guard: the remainder of the Infantry and two Guns of the 4th Company Artillery, under Captain J. deC. Sinclair, assisted by two Guns of Captain Woolcombe's Battery, under Command of Lieutenant Keating, Bombay Artillery, advanced in line with the Column, and aided in the general operations. The fire of the Guns was most effective and good, throwing shot and shell with much precision into the Enemy's Ranks. On the capture of the Guns, and the advance of the Cavalry on the right, I brought forward the Cavalry on the left flank also, which was completely cleared of flying parties of the Insurgents. Having received orders further to reinforce the Rear Guard by two more Guns, I considered I should be best carrying out the views of the Brigadier, and conducting to the success of the day's operations, if I moved down the whole Cavalry to the rear, which had been reported to be hard pressed. This was rapidly effected. I found the Enemy had advanced to a position about eight hundred yards distant from the Rear Guard, that they were in force, and that it was necessary they should be dislodged as soon as possible, their number and boldness increasing. I accordingly directed the line to move forward, and after a short advance, the Guns opened and drove back the Enemy, they answering our fire from matchlocks. After a second advance, I ordered the Cavalry as per margin to charge and clear the front. They rapidly advanced upon a large body of retreating footmen; but unfortunately, the nature of the ground being broken and full of large gravel pits, from which a close and sharp matchlock fire was opened, prevented the attack being as effective as otherwise it would have been. A good many Insurgents, however, were cut up, and those in the pits were afterwards shot down on the Infantry coming up.

I deeply regret to have to report that, in this charge, fell Lieutenant Redmayne, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons; whilst gallantly leading on his men, he was mortally wounded. His gallantry and daring courage were conspicuous to all, and I trust I may be permitted to say that, in him, Her Majesty's Service has lost an Officer of high promise.

6. In the operations against the village of Goraria, on the 24th instant, this Force also took part, and a Detachment of Infantry under Captain Sinclair, 3rd Regiment, joined the stormers and shared in the assault upon the village.

7. I beg to bring to the favorable notice of the Brigadier Commanding the Malwa Field Force the conduct of the entire Force under my Command. My best thanks are due to Lieutenant Hastings Fraser, 4th Cavalry, my Staff Officer, for his zealous exertions in the performance of the numerous duties which devolved upon him, as well as for his prompt and ready aid at all times; to Captain Abbott, Commanding 1st Cavalry; Captain Murray, Commanding 4th Cavalry; Captain Sinclair, Commanding Left Wing 3rd Infantry; Captain J. deC. Sinclair, Commanding Artillery, and Lieutenant Johnson, Adjutant 1st Cavalry: To Surgeon Orr, 4th Cavalry, and Senior Surgeon Field Force Hyderabad Contingent, my best acknowledgments are due for the assistance he afforded me in the Field during the entire operations, for his care and attention to the wounded, and the arrangements made by him for their comfort.

8. I beg to forward a Nominal Return* of the killed and wounded during the four days' operations.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

Pensions of the above-mentioned Families, seven of which are those of Subscribers who lost their lives in consequence of the Mutinies, and there is a probable Unappropriated Balance of Rupees 1,79,378 at this moment.

But ten more Subscribers leaving Families, whose Pensions have been valued at Rupees 4,09,536, lost their lives owing to the Mutinies. Applications have not as yet been made for the admission of these Families to the benefits of the Fund; but it is evident that it would not at present be possible to comply with one-half of them. Under all the circumstances of the case, the Managers have therefore thought it their duty to address a strong appeal to Government for assistance to the Fund, and when they receive the reply of Government, they will lose no time in laying it before the Subscribers.

Mr. J. H. Batten has incurred the penalty under Rule 6, of exclusion from the benefits of the Fund of a Son whose birth, on the 7th November 1856, was not reported within the prescribed six months. The case is submitted for decision.

The Accounts for the past year 1856-57 are submitted.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 6th February 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon (under a suspension of the Standing Orders) within a fortnight:—

A Bill to authorize the confiscation of, or the imposition of fines on, Villages and other places for offences committed by the Inhabitants.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the confiscation of Villages, and the imposition of fines upon the Inhabitants thereof, for certain offences committed within such Villages or by any large number of the Inhabitants; and also to authorize the imposition of fines upon the members of tribes in certain cases; It is enacted as follows:—

I. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of a Magistrate empowered to impose fines on the Inhabitants, or to confiscate Villages, for certain offences, of any Village within his jurisdiction, or any large number of the Inhabitants of such Village, although the individual offenders cannot be identified, have since the 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of rebellion, or of waging war against the State, or of murder, or of any of the offences specified in Section II Act XVI of 1857; or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that any European has been murdered, or been subjected to any violent personal outrage in any such Village, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the Inhabitants of such Village used all the means in their power to prevent the commission of the offence; it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon the Inhabitants of such Village, or upon any specified class of the Inhabitants of such Village; the amount of the fine to be fixed with reference to the means of the Inhabitants or class of Inhabitants, and the nature of the offence or offences committed. If the owner or owners of the Village shall not prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that he or they used all the means in his or their power to restrain the Inhabitants thereof from the commission of the offence, the Magistrate may confiscate the Village, either in lieu of, or in addition to, the imposition of such fine upon the Inhabitants.

II. If it shall appear to a Magistrate that any members of a particular tribe have since the said 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of any of the abovementioned offences within the limits of his jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon the whole tribe residing in the neighbourhood of the place where the offence or offences was or were committed.

III. It shall also be lawful for a Magistrate to impose a fine upon any Village within his jurisdiction, if it shall appear to his satisfaction that, at any time after the passing of this Act, any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or any person proclaimed by Government as a rebel, or for whose apprehension a reward shall have been publicly offered, or any person who shall have escaped from jail or other custody whilst under sentence of imprisonment or under trial for any offence mentioned in Section III Act of 1858, has been knowingly harboured or concealed within such Village; or that any arms or other property belonging to the East India Company have been knowingly concealed therein.

IV. The Magistrate may exempt from liability to pay any portion of a fine imposed under the provisions of this Act, any person whom he shall consider entitled to such exemption in consequence of his having delivered up or given such information as shall have led or shall be calculated to lead to the apprehension and conviction of any rebel, mutineer, or other offender specified in Section I of this Act, or to the recovery of any arms or property belonging to the East India Company.

V. Whenever a Magistrate shall order the confiscation of a Village or the imposition of a fine under this Act, he shall report his proceedings to the Commissioner of the Division. The Commissioner may either confirm the proceedings of the Magistrate, or amend or vary the order as he may think fit; provided that he shall not make any order which the Magistrate could not have made in the first instance.

VI. If the order of the Magistrate be approved or modified by the Commissioner, notice of the final order shall be given by affixing such notice at the Mal Cutcherry of the Village or of the land liable to be affected by such order, or at the Village Chowree, Chowpal, or other conspicuous place in the Village to which the order relates.

VII. In case any fine imposed by this Act be not paid within a time to be fixed by the order for the payment thereof, such time not being less than three months from the date of the order of the Commissioner, the Magistrate may proceed to confiscate the Village, or to hold it under attachment until the fine shall be paid: or he may proceed to recover the amount of the fine from the person liable for the Government Revenue, by the process authorized by law for the recovery of arrears of Revenue; or from any of the Inhabitants of the Village, or from any member of the tribe upon which the fine shall have been imposed, by the process authorized for the recovery of arrears of Rent.

VIII. Any confiscation or sale under this Act shall have the effect of cancelling all under-tenures in the Village or land sold, and shall authorize the ejectment of all tenants or cultivators of land therein, and shall also have the effect of avoiding all incumbrances of the whole or any part of the Village which shall have been created after the date of the commission of the offence mentioned in the Magistrate's order, and all incumbrances created before the date of the commission of the offence if the incumbrancer shall have been in possession at the time, and also all incumbrances made after the passing of this Act unless the same shall have been made and registered three months before the commission of the offence or the day specified in the Magistrate's order as the date of the commission of the offence.

X. All orders made by a Magistrate in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be final, except so far as is otherwise provided by Section V of this Act.

XI. This Act shall take effect only in such Districts or places to which it shall be extended by order of the Governor General in Council or of the Executive Government of any Presidency or place.

XII. The word "Magistrate" shall include every person exercising the full powers of a Magistrate, and every person authorized by the Executive Government to exercise the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act.

his warm acknowledgments for the good services rendered on this occasion :—

FROM

BRIGDR. A. HOPE, Lt.-Col.,
93rd Highlanders,
Commanding 3rd Brigade of Infantry,

TO

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF.

Camp near Futtehgurh, 29th Jan. 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report that,

Detail of Troops.

2 Squadrons 9th Lancers.
200 Hodson's Horse
1 Troop Bengal Horse Artillery.
Field Battery (4 Guns.)
Bengal Artillery
42nd Royal Highlanders.
53rd Regiment.
4th Punjaub Rifles.

in accordance with the Commander-in-Chief's orders, communicated by you, I marched from this Camp (leaving the tents standing) on the 26th instant at 11

P. M., with the Troops noted in the margin, and halting for three hours short of the village of Koo-shinabad, proceeded at day-light on the 27th towards Shumshabad.

A thick fog compelled us to move cautiously, and it was 9 o'clock before the Column closed up under cover of the village of Shumshabad.

The Rebels in considerable force had taken post about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile beyond that place. They occupied a commanding knoll on the edge of the plateau overlooking the plain, which stretches towards the river some six miles distant. On the knoll was a brick building, the shrine of a Mussulman Saint, and the place was surrounded by the remains of an old entrenchment, upon which they had raised a sand-bag Battery. Their front was defended by a ravine (impassable for Cavalry or Guns) which runs at right angles across the road to Mhow, along which we moved, and to the right of which their position was.

As the head of our Column emerged from the village, the fog cleared off, and some Cavalry outposts of the Enemy having been driven in, we moved over some broken ground towards their Camp, now distinctly visible. They immediately opened upon us a well-directed fire of round shot, by which Lieutenant McDowell of Hodson's Horse, a most active Officer, was mortally wounded.

Captain Remington then led his Troop of Horse Artillery at a gallop across the bridge where the road crosses the ravine, and, supported by Captain Hodson's Irregular Horse, wheeled to the right and opened fire on the flank of the Enemy's Camp.

The Rebel Sowars made a daring attempt to outflank and cut off these Guns, but were very boldly met by Captain Hodson, afterwards supported by the 9th Lancers under Captain Steele; and in the charge which ensued, were driven over the steep bank into the plain below.

Meanwhile, Captain Blunt brought his Guns into action in an excellent position on the right bank of the ravine, and the line of Infantry was formed on the right, consisting of the 4th Punjaub Rifles under Captain Wyld, the 42nd Royal Highlanders under Lieutenant-Colonel Cameron being on the extreme right, the 53rd Regiment under Major English being in second line.

The Enemy were unable to withstand the admirable fire of our Guns, and I ordered the Infantry, who had been screened in a hollow of the ground, to advance; and soon after seeing the Camp nearly abandoned, the 4th Punjaub Rifles were directed to secure it, which they did in a very spirited manner, shooting down many of the retreating Enemy.

The 42nd at the same time changed front to their right, and lining the crest of the high bank, fired down on some of the Rebel Cavalry, who were moving on the plain towards our right flank.

The Cavalry and Horse Artillery advancing from our left flank, pursued the Enemy across the plain, killing numbers of them.

A Wing of the 53rd was left to secure the position gained, the rest of the Force moving some distance over the plain, till it was evident no further stand could be made by the Rebels.

The Infantry and Guns then returned, and our bivouack was formed near the Rebel Camp; the Cavalry with two Guns (the whole under Captain Johnson, 9th Lancers) following up the track of the Enemy towards the Ghât for nearly ten miles and returning at about 4 P. M.

In the Enemy's Camp were taken four brass Guns, with a considerable quantity of ammunition, colors, &c. &c.

I believe the Enemy's Force to have consisted of two Regiments from Bareilly, the Pathans of Mhow, Shumshabad, Kaimgunge, &c., and a good many of the armed rabble collected by the hope of plunder. I should estimate their loss at 300 men, including two or three of their chiefs.

I enclose a list of our casualties, and His Excellency will see with regret that both Captain Steele and Captain Hodson have received severe sword-cuts while heading the pursuit.

The loss in the 4th Punjaub Rifles was almost entirely caused by the explosion of one of the Enemy's tumbrils.

I beg to express my very sincere thanks to all the Officers in Command of Corps and to the Troops under their orders, and in particular to Captain Remington and to Captain Johnson, respectively the senior Officers of Artillery and Cavalry, for the able assistance they rendered me.

Captain Hodson's local knowledge and information was most valuable.

Captain Cox, 75th Regiment, my Brigade Major, and Lieutenant Butter, 93rd Highlanders, my Orderly Officer, were most active and useful to me.

The Force returned to Camp yesterday with the Guns captured, of which I enclose a Return, as also the Reports of Captains Remington and Johnson.

RETURN of Casualties in the Force which was under the Command of Brigadier the Hon'ble A. Hope, from the 26th to the 28th instant.

Camp Futtehgurh, 29th Jan. 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier Hope, that when the Artillery was ordered to the front on the morning of the 27th instant, I proceeded with the 1st Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery under the guidance of Captain Hodson, with the view of taking the Enemy's position in flank. The ground was very much broken, and between us and the Enemy was a deep ravine.

Directly we advanced, the Enemy opened on us a fire of round shot. Captain Hodson having pointed out to me a bridge over the ravine, we galloped across, wheeled to the right, and advanced till within about six hundred yards of the Enemy's position. We opened fire here with great effect, our shot and shell evidently telling on the mass of men in the Entrenchment, besides exploding an Ammunition Tumbril and firing the Enemy's Camp. During these operations, Captain Blunt advanced with his Battery rapidly to the front, and opened fire across the ravine at about the same distance from the Enemy's position as the ground we occupied. Captain Blunt's position was most judiciously selected, his fire raking the face of the Entrenchment opposed to us, and our fire performing the same good office for him. The Enemy's fire, considering the small number of Guns he had (four), was for a short time vigorous and well sustained; but the concentrated fire of our ten Guns was too much for him, and in half an hour he abandoned his Guns and Entrenchment and fled in confusion. We galloped up to the brink of the cliff on which the Enemy's position was (leaving the Entrenchment to our right) and plied the fugitives in the plain below with round shot and grape. Captain Blunt advanced on the right of the Entrenchment, and his fire raked the base of the cliff most effectively. We afterwards descended into the plain, but the Enemy's flight was too rapid to admit our overtaking them in a stern chase over very heavy ground, after a long march over sandy roads. I detached two Guns under Lieutenant Lindsay to follow up the retreat with the Cavalry, and with the main body returned to the captured Entrenchment near which our Camp was formed. Accompanying is a list of captured Ordnance. The casualties in the Artillery, I am happy to say, are only two Horses, one killed, the other wounded, both of the 1st Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery. I beg to forward for the Brigadier's inspection a plan of the Enemy's position, by Lieutenant Trail, an Officer of my Troop.

FROM

CAPTAIN C. P. JOHNSON, 9th Lancers,
Commanding Cavalry of the Column,

To

BRIGDR. THE HON'BLE ADRIAN HOPE,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to submit to you the post taken by the Cavalry under my Command, consisting of 196 men of the 9th Lancers under Captain Steele and 230 men of Hodson's Horse, in the operations at Shumshabad.

The Enemy's position having been ascertained, Captain Remmington's Troop of Horse Artillery was ordered by you to cross the Bridge over the nullah and attack their right flank. Captain Hodson's Regiment was sent in support; this point, however, was not gained without loss. Lieutenant McDowell, of Hodson's Horse, was struck down by a round shot and mortally wounded, and one man and horse of the 9th Lancers killed.

In Lieutenant McDowell, the Service has lost a gallant and valuable Officer.

On reaching the right flank of the Enemy, their Cavalry was observed in considerable force to our front and left. Captain Hodson immediately advanced his Regiment, and attacking them with his accustomed gallantry, completely routed them, many of their dead being left on the field. I regret to state that both Captain Hodson and Lieutenant Gough of his Regiment were wounded.

The precision of the Artillery fire having partially dislodged the Rebels from their entrenched position, the 9th Lancers were ordered to advance to the support of Hodson's Horse, who were already engaged with parties of their broken Infantry, one Squadron being left in reserve, as a detached portion of the Enemy's Cavalry still threatened the Guns.

The attack to the front now became general and was entirely successful, though not unattended with loss. Captain Hodson, who had persevered in spite of his wound, was again wounded, and this time severely, and compelled to resign his Command to Lieutenant Wise, who ably led the Regiment for the remainder of the day.

Captain Steele, Commanding the Detachment of the 9th Lancers, whilst gallantly charging at the head of his men, was severely wounded; Lieutenant Willis, of the same corps, slightly.

The pursuit was continued for some distance, and upwards of 300 of the Enemy were killed. According to your instructions, I subsequently advanced with the Cavalry and 2 Guns of Captain Remmington's Troop of Horse Artillery for some miles on the road towards Sewajpore Ghât, but met with no opposition. The Enemy appeared to have been scattered in all directions.

I beg respectfully to call your attention to the disproportionate number of Officers who were wounded, as a proof of the noble manner in which they led their men; to the number of the Enemy's slain, as a proof that the men were not wanting in the support of their Officers.

In fact the conduct of the men during the long day's work was admirable.

They had been ten successive hours in the saddle before coming into action, and nineteen before the pursuit was abandoned; but were always ready.

I beg to enclose a list of casualties.

The 30th January 1858.

ACT NO. VI OF 1858.

An Act to authorize the impressment of artisans and laborers for the erection of Buildings for the European Troops in India, and for works urgently required for Military purposes.

WHEREAS, in consequence of the necessity which exists of completing without delay sufficient Buildings for the accommodation of the European Troops in India, and of the difficulty of procuring without compulsion a sufficient number of artisans and laborers for that purpose, it is expedient to authorize as a temporary measure the impressment of such artisans and laborers as may be necessary : and whereas it may be necessary to impress artisans and laborers for the performance of works urgently required for Military purposes or for the defence of public property ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. In any District or place to which the provisions of this Act shall be extended by order of the Governor General in Council or of the Executive Government of any Presidency or place, it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers, authorized in that behalf by the Governor General in Council or by such Executive Government as aforesaid, to impress any native artisans and laborers who, in the judgment of such Officer or Officers, may be necessary for the erection, completion, alteration, or repair of any Building required for the accommodation of European Troops, or for the collection, preparation, or manufacture of materials for that purpose, or for any other work connected with the erection, completion, alteration, or repair of such Building ; and also to impress such boats, carts, bullocks, or other animals as may be necessary in that behalf : and any such artisan or laborer, boat, cart, bullock, or other animal may be so impressed, whether such artisan or laborer shall be under a contract to work for, or such boat, cart, bullock, or other animal shall have been previously let to hire to, any private person or not.

II. No action or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against the East India Company, or against Government, or against the Officer ordering the impressment, or against any person acting in his aid or under his orders, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act ; nor shall any person who shall be impressed, or whose property shall be impressed under the provisions of this Act, or any other person, be liable to any action or proceeding for the non-performance of any contract which he shall have entered into, and which he shall be prevented from completing, by reason of such impressment or of any thing done under the authority of this Act.

III. Every person impressed, or whose property shall be impressed under this Act, shall be paid the full market-value of his labor, or of the hire of his property, as the case may be, according to such rules as shall from time to time be made by the Executive Government for securing the just and punctual payment thereof ; the amount in case of dispute shall be settled by a Magistrate.

IV. If any person with whom any contract shall have been entered into before the passing of this Act, for the personal labor or services of any person impressed under this Act, or for the hire of any boat, cart, bullock, or other animal which may be so impressed, shall sustain damage by reason of any breach of such contract occasioned by any such impressment, or of any thing done under the authority of this Act, he shall be entitled to full compensation for such damage, to be paid by the Government.

V. The claimant shall send in to the Officer by whom or under whose orders the impressment shall be made, a written demand stating the terms of the contract for the breach of which he claims compensation, the date of the contract, the period for which the contract was entered into, the amount of advances (if any) made in pursuance of the contract, the nature of the damage sustained, and the amount of compensation claimed.

VI. A declaration in writing signed by the claimant shall be written on or annexed to the claim, and the claimant shall thereby declare that the statements contained in the claim are true in substance. If any person shall wilfully and corruptly make a false declaration, he shall be liable upon conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and also to fine. Such conviction may be by a Magistrate, except in the case of European British subjects.

VII. In case any dispute shall arise as to the amount of such compensation, the same shall be determined in a summary way by the Zillah Judge or other Officer exercising the powers of a Judge on the petition of the claimant or of the Officer under whose authority the impressment was made; and the decision of the Judge or other Officer shall be final.

VIII. If any person impressed under this Act shall abscond or conceal himself, or endeavor to abscond or conceal himself; or shall without reasonable cause desert the work upon which he shall be employed by Government before the same shall have been completed; or shall refuse or wilfully neglect to bestow his labor upon such work to the best of his ability; or if any person shall be guilty of any device for the purpose of preventing the impressment of any boat, cart, bullock, or other animal—he shall be liable, upon conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and, in case of non-payment of the fine, may be ordered by the Magistrate to suffer corporal punishment not exceeding fifteen stripes with a ratan. Every such conviction shall be final.

IX. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the infliction of corporal punishment upon any European or upon any female.

XII. The word "Magistrate" shall include every person exercising the full powers of a Magistrate, and every person authorized by the Executive Government to exercise the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act.

XIII. This Act shall not authorize any impressment to be made after the expiration of six months from the passing of this Act.
